

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

In general I am very concerned about media consolidation and this examples further illustrates the power we have given to large media corporations.

Ultimately, we need to strengthen the independent media and begin the deconstruction of large media ownership as it does not serve the public interest.

thank you